Tech High School Split into Six Academies

As announced in prior issues of TECHnically Speaking, planning has been underway to revamp the educational structure of the Indianapolis Public Schools' high schools. There are currently 5 high schools in the system (Arlington, Broad Ripple, Manual, Northwest and Tech), and beginning this fall each campus will change to include three to six learning communities of no more than 400 students each, grouped around specific academic themes. The result will be 21 learning academies in the system, with Tech split into 6 small schools. (See Dr. Clark's letter on page 3 of this newsletter for more details).

The purpose of this radical change is to improve students' academic, social and behavioral performance, to reduce the dropout rate, and to connect students in a more personal way with school. To date, IPS has received $1.6 million from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation to plan and implement the Small Schools initiative in Indianapolis. IPS has also received a $2.2 million Federal grant to provide professional development to high school staff.

The total impact of Tech's changes is not currently known, regarding school-wide initiatives such as athletics, music, publications, scholarship programs and the like. Likewise, the role of the Alumni Association in the life of the school may be undergoing changes as well. More details will be provided in future newsletters.

From the Principal's Desk

Tech will be comprised of six small schools, called Academies, of 400 or fewer students each.

Greetings, Fellow Titans!

This is my final letter as "Principal" of Arsenal Technical High School. Beginning the fall of 2005, the campus principal's position will be shifted to that of Campus Administrator. The campus administrator position will be set for one year. After that time, the Campus Council will determine the structure of the campus administration.

The reason for this change is that Tech will be comprised of six small schools, called Academies, of 400 or fewer students each. Each of the academies on the Tech campus will have its own administrator, called Academic Dean. The six small schools are:

Career and Technology Academy – Academic Dean: William White,

Enterprise International Academy – Academic Dean: Undetermined at this time,

Fine Arts and Self-Expression - Academic Dean: Terri Gelenius,

Human Services Academy – Academic Dean: Undetermined at this time,

Leadership Academy – Academic Dean: David Wintin,

Math/Science and Health Professions Magnet School – Director: Stan Irwin.

Many things will change about Tech this fall. Most traditions, I hope, will not be affected. For those former ATHS athletes, the athletic program will remain as a campus program. One will still be able to cheer for the Titans. For those Tech Legionnaires, it is my hope that seniors will continue to be inducted into the Tech Legion. The honorary is too unique and prestigious to dismantle.

It has been my pleasure to serve the students, faculty, and the alumni of Arsenal Technical High School the past four years as Principal. I hope that Tech has improved under my leadership. I know that I have grown through my service to my alma mater.

Best wishes to all proud Titans; past, present, and future. Keep our beloved school always in your heart. I know I shall.

Peggy Berchekas Clark, Ed. D., Class of 1966

Jerry Troxel to Receive Duane Blankenhorn Award

Jerry E. Troxel, Class of 1968, will be the recipient of the 2005 Duane Blankenhorn Award for service on the Tech Alumni Board. This award was established in 2002 in memory of Duane, a Tech teacher, counselor and long-time member of the Board.

Jerry has served on the Board since 1991 as the editor of TECHnically Speaking. He is also the computer guru for the Alumni Association, having developed its mailing database application.

After graduating from Tech, Jerry received a B.S. degree in Computer Technology from Purdue (1973), and an MBA from Indiana University (1983). He has worked in Information Technology his entire career, starting when he was a Senior at Tech. He is currently Senior Technical Director in charge of the Enterprise Data Warehouse at SBC in Indianapolis, having been with the company for 23 years.

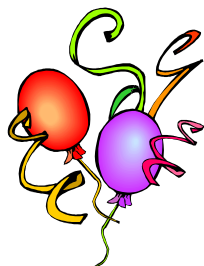

Jerry's hobbies include riding roller coasters, singing in the church choir, and singing in a Barbershop quartet known as "Smilin' Through." He is President of the Greater Indianapolis Chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society, Circle City Sound Chorus.

Jerry lives on Indianapolis' far Eastside. He has two children, Christopher Troxel and Jessica Heck, and 1 granddaughter, Avery Troxel.

New Tech Monument to Honor Veterans

In honor of all Arsenal Technical High School Alumni who have served our country in the United States Military - Dedicated in 2005 by the Class of 1955

To: All TECH Alumni

From: Class of '55 Fundraising Committee

With the rich tradition of TECH dating back to 1862, during the Civil War, the Class of '55 Reunion Committee thought it would be appropriate to raise funds for the construction of a monument with the inscription:

In honor of all Arsenal Technical High School Alumni who have served our country in the United States Military. - Dedicated in 2005 by the Class of 1955 -

This monument will be placed in front of the Arsenal. Its overall height will be 7 feet. The base will be 3 feet high and finished in brick to complement surrounding structures on the campus. Five bronze seals, each 12" in diameter, representing the branches of the military services, will be installed on the base. On top of the base will be a bronze plaque with the above inscription. Above the plaque will be a statue of a helmet, boots and weapon, all in bronze. The project was discussed with the American Legion, which concurred with the symbolism of the project. A sketch of the monument appears at left. Cost of the monument will be approximately $15,000.

This monument will be a constant reminder of the sacrifices made by the men and women in uniform to secure and maintain our freedom. Thousands of you have served honorably in the armed forces and have been a part of why we continue to enjoy freedom unprecedented in the world. This monument will be in your honor. It is hoped the administrators, teachers and support staff will reinforce the symbolism of this monument through regular contact with the students during their time at Tech.

We are hopeful that many of you will be willing and able to make a contribution to this project. Please make out your tax deductible check to the ATHS Alumni Association and mail it to: Jeanne Sutton Unger, 5452 Gallagher Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46142.

You are welcome to attend the dedication ceremony at Tech on Saturday, June 11, 2005, at 11:00 a.m. in front of the Arsenal. The ceremony will be held outside with very limited seating (most will have to stand), and will last approximately thirty minutes. Colonel James Bohn, Class of '55, will make the dedication. Other special guests will be present and will make remarks.

Your fund raising committee: John Norman, Chairman, (317) 894-7051; Ron Jones; Joyce (Williams) Kavanaugh.

Seventeen Tech Alumni Receive Honors

On October 20th, 2004, the Tech Alumni Association hosted our annual Anderson Awards luncheon. Anderson Awards are given annually in honor of Hanson H. Recipients of the award are selected on the basis of those qualities that Mr. Anderson personified, those of outstanding personal achievement and success in some area of their lives and community service. The 2004 recipients are pictured here.

DON'T MISS TECH ALUMNI DAY!

Alumni Day June 11

Get your reservations
in today!

Alumni Day 2005 will be held on Saturday, June 11. Get your reservations in today, so that you won't miss any of the festivities and personal reunions with classmates.

Our activities will once again be held on Tech's beautiful campus. If you haven't been to Tech lately, isn't it time you made plans now to come and walk those familiar pathways with old friends, and to meet some of today's students as well?

Registration will begin at 9:00 am, outside William Moon Hall (the cafeteria/music building). The campus will be open until 2:00 pm for self-guided tours and class photographs. The following classes are scheduled to have their group pictures taken outside the Arsenal Building: Class of 1955, 9:00 am; Class of 1965, 9:15 am. Our program will begin at 10:00 in Hanson H. Anderson Auditorium, and will feature the recognition of reunion classes, honored graduates and award recipients, as well as a performance by our Techoir alumni. Dedication of the memorial will follow at 11 a.m.

Lunch is included in the cost of your registration, and will be served in the cafeteria at 11:30. Weather permitting, you may want to eat outside at your favorite campus location.

Be sure to register for the program using the enclosed Reservation Form. There are 3 sandwich choices and 4 drink choices for lunch. Indicate your selections on the reservation form and mail it to us with your check by June 1. We'll see you there!
